

Attention Young Members of Tulsa Audubon!

Birding Camp Scholarship Available

Tulsa Audubon is pleased to announce we are offering two scholarships to young birders to attend a youth birding camp in the summer of 2017. There are several such camps in different parts of the country and the scholarship can be applied to any of these. The eligible camps are outlined below. Some excellent discussion on youth birding camps can be found on this Facebook page:

<http://www.facebook.com/youngbirders>

More good info can be found on the American Birding Associations Young Birder's Blog:

<http://youngbirders.aba.org/>

To be eligible, you must meet these criteria:

- Live in the general Tulsa area
- Be between 14-18 years old (as of June 1st, 2017) (Max of 17 for the Hog Island camp)
- Be willing to provide a short report (about 10 minutes) at a TAS meeting
- Be willing to provide 10 volunteer hours (such as at Oxley, giving a bird talk to an elementary school class, leading a youth field trip, etc., or your own idea, something meaningful to you.)

To apply, please provide these three things:

1. Write an essay (approximately 500 words) answering these questions: What is the importance of birds to you, why is birding an important activity for you, and how does it make you a better conservationist?
2. List your five greatest achievements to date. (These need not be bird-related.)
3. Provide a letter of recommendation from a teacher, parent or an adult birding friend that should cover what they know about your commitment to birds and birding.

The deadline to apply is January 31, 2017, but you are encouraged to send in your applications as soon as possible, since these camps fill up very fast and we will judge applications as they arrive.

The scholarship will cover up to $1,300 of the camp fee. Transportation and other incidental expenses will be paid by the camper or his/her family. Additional funding to help with transportation may be available on an as needed basis.

Please note we hope to offer this scholarship in future years, so if you are not selected this year, there will be future opportunities. We want every young birder to have a chance to attend one of these camps!

ABA's Camp Colorado July 16-22, 2017 or July 26 – Aug 1, 2017 $1,295 (covered by scholarship)

<http://events.aba.org/aba-young-birder-camps/>

Location: YMCA of the Rockies – Estes Park, Colorado

Description: Join us as we explore Colorado from grasslands to glaciers! From the shortgrass prairie of northeastern Colorado to the aspen groves and alpine tundra of the Rocky Mountain National Park, Camp Colorado 2016 has it all! For our fourth year in a row based out of Estes Park, our home away from home will be the YMCA of the Rockies, bordering the majestic Rocky Mountain National Park. Campers will find plenty of opportunities to take their birding skills to the next level, meet other young people with similar interests, explore careers in birding and ornithology, and, of course, learn about the bird life and natural history of northern Colorado.

ABA's Camp Avocet July 29 - August 4, 2017 $1,295 (covered by scholarship)

<http://events.aba.org/aba-young-birder-camps/>

Location: The Virden Center – Lewes, Delaware

Description: Our newest ABA camp in it's second year will be based at the University of Delaware's stunning Virden Retreat Center in historic Lewes, Delaware, only minutes away from two major National Wildlife Refuges and a short ride to six, ecologically-based birding regions! Are you looking for shorebirds? Well, Camp Avocet will be stacked full of migrants such as dowitchers, Black-necked Stilt, Semipalmated, Western and Least Sandpipers, and of course American Avocets numbering in the hundreds. Delaware boasts an outstanding fall migration of shorebirds with easy access and fabulous viewing opportunities. Fabulous field trips led by ABA Staff and guest instructors will be punctuated by terrific educational workshops, making Camp Avocet 2015 a truly exceptional experience!

Coastal Maine Bird Studies for Teens June 17-22, 2012 and June 24-29, 2012 $1195

<http://hogisland.audubon.org/bird-studies-teens>

Location: Hog Island, Maine

Leaders (vary depending on session, but to include): Scott Weidensaul, Heather Richards, Doug Wentzel, Josh Potter, Stephen Kress, Don Kroodsmas, Sara Morris, Pete Salmansohn, Susan Schubel, Bill Thompson III, Peter Vickery, and Julie Zickefoose

Description: During this intensive 6-day, 5-night program on Hog Island, some of the country's best known birders and ornithologists will lead sessions on field identification, bird song recognition, and conservation practices. This program includes the opportunity to observe Audubon's seabird conservation field research in action, and is the only Hog Island program that lands participants on Eastern Egg Rock during the puffin breeding season.
